

The Boston Globe

Arts

NAMES

Wyclef Jean plays MFA Haiti benefit

AVI LEVY

Wyclef Jean at the MFA Saturday night.

By Mark Shanahan and Meredith Goldstein | GLOBE STAFF NOVEMBER 21, 2011

Musician, producer, and onetime Haitian presidential hopeful Wyclef Jean was at the Museum of Fine Arts Saturday night to support “Contemporary Haiti,” a benefit for his homeland. The night, which was produced by AJ Williams of Creative Events on behalf of the organization Aksyon, included dinner by Todd English and drew guests and performers such as restaurateur Darryl Settles, fashion designer Prajje Jean-Baptiste, and singer Herve Aimable. We're told that one of the highlights of the night was when "The Fighter" actress Kate O'Brien jumped up to dance during Jean's performance.

---

© 2018 Boston Globe Media Partners, LLC